THE VINTAGE

Indisputable and obvious consequences of a climatic change?

The Rhone vineyard has experienced in the last two years, two extreme, paradoxical and diametrically opposite vintages. 2021, frosty, cool and rainy. 2022 excessively dry and sunny. This observation leaves us perplexed and wondering about the future of the vineyards.

Our overall assessment of the first juices was more severe, but certainly more objective than those of our colleagues, describing the vintage as one of the most qualitative of the last five years.

Of course 2022, has some wonderful surprises in store for us but also its fair share of disappointments.

As a matter of fact, the "Great Valley" had to go through a lot of climatic pitfalls during the season. Due to the intense, previously unseen and unprecedented drought.

Once again, the resilience of the vine in the face of these climatic hazards, commands our respect and admiration. But up until which point?

As so often, may be too much to our liking, everything hangs by a thread. The mid-august and September rain more or less intense, had the salvaging effect on the sectors where the point of no return, water stress and the balance had not yet been reached.

This 2022 vintage is also indeniably marked by a strong heterogeneity between the appellations but also at the heart of the same appellation. Tastings at producers are primordial for amateurs. Our meticulous work of selection will have even more meaning this year and will reveal our know-how!

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

JEB DUNNUCK

97/100

"The 2022 Châteauneuf Du Pape Cuvee Speciale is on another level, with a blockbuster perfume of ripe black cherries, melted licorice, jus de viande, lavender, and roasted garrigue. A rich, opulent style of Châteauneuf du Pape, it brings full-bodied richness while staying graceful, weightless, and flawlessly balanced, with ripe tannins and incredible length. This tour de force 2022 should be snatched up by savvy readers and enjoyed over the coming 15 years or so."

Wine Spectator

93/100

"Dark, brooding and large in scale, with dark fig and macerated plum edged in graphite and grippy tannins. A powerful, densely packed version, offering intriguing notes of warm earth, lavender and spiced fruitcake, plus a cherry liqueur-like character on the rich palate. Muscular in feel, this needs some time to unfurl. Grenache and Mourvèdre."

94/100

"A solid, well-built and fine-tuned Châteauneuf-du-Pape with layers and focus. It shows notes of sweet cherries, ripe blackcurrants, grilled thyme, baking spices and a touch of porcini mushroom. It's full-bodied with fine, firm tannins. Compact and well framed with a caressing texture to the vivid and solid character. Plenty of drive here, with a dense, peppery and long finish."
